

SACKETT & SACKETT
ATTORNEYS AT LAW
LYNCHBURG, VIRGINIA

KRISE BUILDING

December 27th, 1928.

CHARLES H. SACKETT
HENRY M. SACKETT
DOUGLAS A. ROBERTSON

Mr. W. B. Caldwell,
Appomattox, Va.

Dear Sir:

I acknowledge receipt of your letter postmarked the 24th instant. The loan which you procured through this office is for $7250.00.

I hold the following papers in connection with this loan.

1. Life Insurance Policy No. 10 205 811, on your life written in the New York Life Insurance Company for ~~$2000.00~~ ^{10000 RAR}
2. Fire Insurance Policy No. 7275410 in the London Assurance Corporation for $2000.00, expiring on July 20th, 1931.
3. Policy No. 6009, New York Underwriters for $5000.00 on dwelling, $2000.00 on household furniture, expiring December 8th, 1929.
4. Policy No. D782984, written in the Dixie Fire Insurance Company for $7000.00, expiring July 24th, 1929.

Yours very truly,

Douglas A. Robertson

DAR-P