*There was a child went forth every day,
And the first object he look'd upon, that object he became
And that object became part of him for the day or a certain part of the day,*

Or for many years or stretching cycles of years.

And the schoolmistress that passed on her way to school.

And the friendly boys that pass'd and the quarrelsome boys.

And the tidy and fresh-cheek'd girls,

And the barefoot ... boy and girl,

And all the changes of city and country wherever he went.

The blow, the quick loud word, the tight bargain, the crafty lure

The family usages, the language, the company, the furniture, the yearning and swelling heart.

Affection

*that will not be gainsay'd, the sense of what is real, the thoughts
if after all it should prove unreal.*

The curious whether and how, whether that which appears so is so or is it all flashes and specks?

Men and women crowding fast in the streets, if they are not flashes and specks what are they?

Vehicles, teams, the huge crossing at the ferries ...

In Memory Of: Johnny Braford

We will always remember your beautiful smile, and the way you brightened all our lives.
